
NHSC Scholarship Program. If you are a high school senior or graduate student, please be advised that you cannot apply for a federal government program (e.g., Pell Grants, Work-Study, Direct Loans, etc.) as part of the application process until after you have received your scholarship award. In addition, the maximum award for the 2013 National Health Service Corps Scholarship Program will be $9,000. If you have any questions regarding the application process, please feel free to contact the NHSC Office of Scholarships at scholarships@hsc.gov or call 1-855-735-4436. We will be happy to answer your questions. Yes! Click here to learn how you can be part of the success of our U.S. Military family members and graduates! “Not only will I be a success for the great service to our Nation, I’m looking forward to going to college to have a successful future.” Erica is a student at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill with a major in psychology. She plans to use her scholarship to help pay for books, tuition, and other educational costs so that she can eventually work in the field of psychology. Her mother is a retired military member and her father is a retired federal employee. “Even though I am going into my last semester in high school, I plan on using the scholarship to help me pay for my schooling as well as my tuition and books. The scholarship has helped me immensely so far and I am very grateful to have it. I have heard many alumni say they have their own scholarships and I plan to be just like them one day.” Erica is the daughter of Navy Commander Ola A. Frunz. Erica is grateful for her scholarship and thanks the NHSC for helping her get a head start on her future. The NHSC plays a key role in helping service members achieve their educational goals and is committed to helping more service members 82157476af
